Step 7 Humbly asked Him to remove our shortcomings.

Tradition 7 (Short Form) Every AA group ought to be fully self-supporting, declining outside contributions.

Concept 7 (Short Form) The Charter and Bylaws of the General Service Board are legal instruments, empowering the trustees to manage and conduct world service affairs. The Conference Charter is not a legal document; it relies upon tradition and the A.A. purse for final effectiveness.

Playing Checkers or Playing Chess

I Got it Right the Second Time By Rick R.

Let me preface this article by saying that I am not being critical of anybody for any reason concerning where a person is along the path of sobriety. My only motive for writing it is to give some perspective concerning the possibilities which lie ahead based on the thoroughness we applied to the understanding of the steps as we put some distance between us and that last drink. I am one of the fortunate ones that showed up at the doors of Alcoholics Anonymous (A.A.) on October 15th, 1969, at the age of 28 and have never wanted a drink since that day. I was the youngest person in the room for my first couple of years as the drug using population of the 60s generation had not started showing up until the mid-70s and they seemed to bottom out at a much earlier in life than the common variety alcoholic who seldom came to us until they were in their mid-40s "midlife crisis".

In my first two years, I was like everyone else when it came to the subject of thoroughness in the beginning and I was selective about what I would do with the program and about the things I would dismiss as unnecessary since I had absolutely no desire to drink. I was slow and deliberate when it came to taking the steps. It was almost two years before I attempted to do the 4th step inventory and being in the Navy at the time, I was shipped out to an oil tanker in the Tonkin gulf Yacht Club where I spent four months in and out of port hauling fuel to the fleet. I had many nights at sea thinking and longing to be back with my home group and contemplating what I had planned to do when I got home. When I did return home, I reopened my Fourth Step Inventory with a new attitude about the steps and realized that my original attempt was a very shallow scam and I burned it and started over and got it right the second time around.

That, I think, was the turning point in my attitude about thoroughness. I addressed those so-called tormenting ghosts of yesterday, shared them with another trusted member of the program and it just lifted the weight off my shoulders. That I believe, made the rest of the program much easier. I have attended a weekly step study meeting ever since and it helps me to measure my growth as I cycle through the Steps and Traditions several times a year. There is a term on page 85 in the Big Book and coincidentally on page 85 in the 12&12 that suggest this is no time to rest on our laurels, and I take that very seriously because of the unexpected results I have experienced concerning the quality of life I Live Today.

Steps 10, 11, and 12 are referred to as the maintenance steps. With many years of sobriety, I could rest on my laurels and vegetate, but I would have no purpose in life and if I neglected responsibilities my life worth would suffer. Being judgmental about the behavior of others, I would be playing God and we all know that isn't right unless I am perfect myself. Scott Peck defines love as caring for and nurturing another person, and I can love everyone even if they can't return the gesture. It just means wishing the best for them. (No Exceptions). These are just a few ideas but there are many ways to continue to have a purpose and if you don't, you may want to revisit the 4th through the 9th steps and get a better perspective on how to become a more useful member of society and be fulfilled or, you may be satisfied just not drinking one day at a time. That's your choice. I heard a sportscaster describing the different head coaches of professional football teams and he said some are playing Checkers and a few are playing Chess. Life is too good to waste.

Grapevine – Monthly FYI Note

Hello Everyone,

The July Grapevine is a Special Edition, focused on AA in Prison

FREE ON THE INSIDE

Please share the AA News article below with your fellow AA friends and "sponsees" ~ from page 10

Call for volunteers

I look forward to reading this and want to thank the anonymous member who brought it to our attention at Central Office.

Please keep Viewpoint suggestions coming (email) Editor@ncsandiegoaa.org

Call for

Looking for outside AA members to help with Corrections Correspondence

The General Service Office helps connect AA members on the outside with people in custody through the Corrections Correspondence Service (CCS). Especially needed right now are male Spanish-speaking members (on the East Coast), and members who in the usual sense of the identify as transgender or non-binary to share experition not, these incarcerence, strength and hope with inside AA members.

GSO has a waiting list of male AA members in prison who are waiting for an outside AA member to write to them. (Female AA members in prison can get linked right away thanks to all the female volunteers who have signed up.)

Corrections Correspondence is starting to get off the ground in Canada as well (pre-stamped international envelopes are available at corrections@ aa.org). Inside and outside members are welcome to participate.

Because correctional facilities often have rules prohibiting direct contact among local AA volunteers and insiders, the letters exchanged through CCS might provide an alcoholic behind the walls with their only personal connection to another AA member. GSO does not assign sponsors, nor does it operate a pen pal service word. However, more often ated alcoholics seek an outside member to guide them through the Twelve Steps of AA and answe basic questions about AA's program of recovery.

GSO only makes the initial connection, which is a random match between members of the same gender who live more than 700 miles from that correctional facility. GSO says that participants on both sides of the CCS rave about the value of this kind of letter writing with other alcoholics The inside members find freedom even while behind walls and the outside members deepen their own connection to AA and their understanding of the Twelve Steps.

No prison experience is needed to do this kind of service. Those with clearance issues are welcomed. The members behind the walls know the path to prison, but they may need help finding the path to sobriety.

email: corrections@aa.org Or you can write to: Corrections Desk, General Service Station, New York, N.Y. 10163

Grapevine welcomes reports on state conventions, workshops and other major AA events for AA News We'd also like to hear about the different ways that your area, district or committee is doing service o carrying the message. Email stories, approximately 150-040 words long, to GVEditorial@aagrapevine.org or mail them to AA Grapevine, attention Grapevine Editorial, 475 Riverside Drive, New York, NY 10115.
