Step 10—Continued to take personal inventory and when we were wrong promptly admitted it.

Tradition 10—(Short Form) Alcoholics Anonymous has no opinion on outside issues; hence the AA name ought never be drawn into public controversy.

Concept 10—Every service responsibility should be matched by an equal service authority, with the scope of such authority well defined.

The Unselfish Spirit

Accepting the World as It Is By Rick R.

Our primary purpose is to stay sober and to help other alcoholics to achieve sobriety. The degree that the individual carries out these two goals is not mandated by the A.A. body and the only requirement for membership is a desire to stop drinking. The A.A. program offers suggestions on how to overcome the difficulties brought about by the disease of alcoholism and not simply the act of drinking. These difficulties come in the form of spiritual damage and material wreckage. It seems that our spiritual damage lies in the unseen part of our makeup such as our thinking, our motive, our fears, our conscience, our ego, guilt, shame, self-esteem, and the like. Our material wreckage often comes as the result of our spiritual damage and is the residue of our spiritual condition.

Selfishness- self –Centeredness! That, we think is the root of our trouble. (pg. 62 BB.) That, being said, isn't it apparent that unselfishness would be the solution to our trouble? That seems to oversimplify the solution but, in my experience, it is so simple that it is usually overlooked. Most alcoholics have spent their lives taking advantage of everything and everyone around them and as the result, have been plagued by the guilt and shame that only a drink could mask. The program of Alcoholics Anonymous (A.A.) suggests that we live by principles, and I cannot find one selfish principle in the Big Book or the 12&12.

I believe that most of the people that truly have a desire to stop drinking and embrace the A.A. program start to change the behaviors that they recognize as counterproductive simply because they can hear these things that we all share at meetings, and they change the most obvious shortcomings in their day-to-day activities. This is a good start and with time it starts to erode many of the shameful habits of the past that had become commonplace. Talk of inventories and amends causes us to think at a different level about those material matters. That is usually the only thing that we are aware of in the beginning.

When we talk about spiritual matters, it seems that we all have different perceptions of exactly what we mean by "spiritual." If, for the sake of simplicity, we think of it as our innermost self, such as our ego, conscience, our mind, our heart, or soul, if you like, we realize that this is where our spirit resides and where our emotions live, and that is also where the pain of our past thrives. If we want to achieve the peace of mind that is promised in Step Nine, we will have to come to terms with the process of acceptance of the world as it is and of the people in that world. If we want to be accepted and forgiven for our past mistakes, we must be willing to accept all the people that we find fault with and give them the same latitude that we are seeking. To accomplish this, we can stop being judgmental and replace that with an understanding spirit. We will have to replace gossip and character assassination with compassion and empathy. If we can't do that, then how can we expect the world around us to accept us and forgive us for our past mistakes?

This is no time to rest on our laurels, so to speak. It's time to begin cleaning out the attic. This is where we begin to free up that space in our minds that has been keeping us awake at night. This is truly the path to developing the unselfish spirit, and with it comes a peace of mind that's hard to imagine while we were still playing God ourselves. It costs me nothing to be kind. My wish for those other people is that they can someday find the same peace of mind for themselves that this process has provided for me. What more can I say?

Spotlight

North County AA Group History

Spotlight is a new monthly feature that presents group histories in our district. Somebody, at some point, found a room, set up a coffee pot and invited another alcoholic or three, and a group was formed. Here's where you can tell us about your group—open, discussion, speaker, hybrid, Big Book study—how it started, where it meets, and when.

This is a great 12-Step Service opportunity!

Central Office Hotline operates a 24/7 Hotline for Alcoholics and Family members in need of help.

Once the Central Office closes the After-Hour Phone Committee volunteers answer phones while the office is closed. We need help for Phone and 12-Step Call List Volunteer's. Most phone volunteers only have one shift per month ranging from 3 – 4 hours. 12-Step-Call Volunteers could be called upon to assist the phone volunteers with needs and Carrying the Message to callers. This is a great way to be of service!
