Step 12 Having had a spiritual awakening as the result of these Steps, we tried to carry this message to alcoholics, and to practice these principles in all our affairs.

Tradition 12 (Short Form) Anonymity is the spiritual foundation of all our traditions, ever reminding us to place principles above personalities.

Concept 12 The Conference shall observe the spirit of A.A. tradition, taking care that it never becomes the seat of perilous wealth or power...

The Heart of Spirituality

Unselfish Motives
By Rick R.

What a difficult time we have making the transition, in our thinking, from the conditioning we have received in a largely materialistic world, to a life based on spiritual principles. Most of the people around us have an easy time of it, mainly because they are not burdened with the disease of alcoholism. They have a life perspective that is closer to the centerline when it comes to the fears, insecurities, inferiorities, guilt, etc. that the alcoholic faces every day of his/her life. The level of discomfort, caused by these defects, seldom changes without a continuous effort to replace them with thoughts and actions that keep this faulty perception in check. It is well known among A.A. members who have tried to go it alone, based on their knowledge, and have failed, that we may have to change our whole approach. The transition I referred to is a most difficult leap to make. This is mainly because of the defiant thinking that we as alcoholics have relied upon to protect us from the various authority/religious/establishment figures, and our perception of what THEY were trying to get us to think and do. Normal people do not resist these things to the degree that we do, only because their perception of these things is not nearly as threatening to them as it is to us. For us, it should be simple to go from a material/practical line of thought to a spiritual/unselfish way of thinking, but it seems that we need to go all the way around the world in order to settle into this simple transition. Why is this so difficult for us? I believe that the word SPIRITUAL often throws a monkey wrench into the works. I believe that our preconceived ideas, based on our conditioning, of what is meant by the word spiritual is what many of us struggle with; or, we simply dismiss it as more religious dogma, and if we can find a way to bridge that gap, we can get on with a life that is unimaginably good.

The thing we come to understand in Alcoholics Anonymous is that, to live a happy and contented life, we need to overcome all the fear, insecurities, low self-esteem, guilt, etc. by starting the practice of doing unselfish things to overcome our neediness. If we do these things long enough, we find that we are better off than before. Our perception changes. Things seem to be less threatening, and this inspires (in-spirits) us to reach out even further and see where it takes us.

In the beginning of our AA journey, we are encouraged to take on service responsibilities. Sometimes this is the first time that we step out of character and do something for others with no expectation of material reward, but we do end up with an unexpected reward. It lifts our spirits, and we finally feel that we are a part of something. Oh! There's that word spirit again. If, for the purpose of AA, we just replaced the word spiritual with selflessness, I think it would take all the difficult transitional roadblocks out of the way. I personally cannot see much difference in the two, for my way of thinking.

The action that we take when reaching out to others is the first step in understanding unselfish/spiritual principles. When we do these things in the spirit of brightening the life of another, and not for the recognition we are going to receive, we heal both ourselves and the recipient. I believe that THE UNSELFISH MOTIVE (regarding what we do for and how we treat others) is THE HEART OF SPIRITUALITY. It would be hard to fault a person for what they do when their motive is PURE AND UNSELFISH. This, I believe, is living in the spirit of all our principles. That warm feeling in my heart is all the reward I will ever need.

Spotlight

North County AA Group History

Spotlight is a new monthly feature that presents group histories in our district. Somebody, at some point, found a room, set up a coffee pot and invited another alcoholic or three, and a group was formed. Here's where you can tell us about your group—open, discussion, speaker, hybrid, Big Book study—how it started, where it meets, and when.

Ideas, emotions, and attitudes which were once the guiding forces of the lives of these men are suddenly cast to one side, and a completely new set of conceptions and motives begin to dominate them. -- Alcoholics Anonymous, page 27

Driven by a hundred forms of fear, self-delusion, self-seeking, and self-pity, we step on the toes of our fellows and they retaliate. -- Alcoholics Anonymous, page 62

NEEDING HELP!

This is a great 12-Step Service opportunity!

Central Office operates a 24/7 hotline for Alcoholics and Family members who need help.

Once the Central Office closes, the After-Hour Phone Committee volunteers answer calls while the office is closed. We need help with Phone and 12-Step Call List Volunteers.

- Most phone volunteers only have one shift per month ranging from 3 4 hours.
- 12-Step-Call Volunteers could be called upon to assist the phone volunteers with carrying the Message to callers.
